'AS GOOD AS IT GETS'

Sometimes a high school class is more than a haphazard collection of students. Despite the stereotypes, such a class transcends the standard cliches and expectations of what a high school class can be. The students of the Stoneham High School Class of 2003 have become a true community, blossoming throughout their four years and making their experience truly "As Good As It Gets."

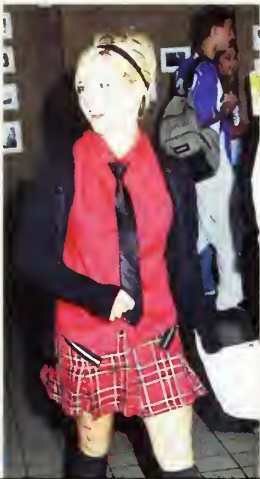

Similar to actors and actresses, our class has developed their own characters and has learned to play off one another, whether it is in academics, theatrics, or athletics. Everyone plays an important role no matter what the size. We help each other and learn from each other, giving us the chance to succeed. The sense of community creates an atmosphere rich in those special moments during the long tedious school day that will make you laugh and make you cry.

The unity of our class has always been admired. Our class has worked as a team supporting and encouraging each other's endeavors. As the ending credits roll we will realize that every person has had an effect on the course of our lives. Wherever we go, whatever we do, we will always look back to those people who have shaped the men and women we are today.

DEDICATION

"STAND AND DELIVER"

MS. PATRICIA NORELLI

Oftentimes a teacher's influence on the student body is witnessed in the hallways before class as a high-five or cheerful "hello!". Less common is a teacher whose presence is felt less physically, and who influences her students almost solely from behind the scenes. For more than thirty years at Stoneham High School, Miss Norelli provided guidance and direction to her students in the classroom, and later as an administrator as well. Miss Norelli literally woke SHS up in the morning, arriving as early as 4:00a.m. to open the school; in fact, she once barely avoided witnessing a pre-dawn burglary! Her tireless devotion to not only her English students, but also everyone affected by the challenging and successful English curriculum as well, is illustrated by Stoneham's exceptional performance on the statewide MCAS for the past several years.

Miss Norelli's strong work ethic and devotion to her students stems partly from her childhood in Pittsburgh, PA, where she developed her strong Midwestern values. Her intrinsic love of New England motivated her move here, first to study at Clark University, where she earned a B.A. in American studies and an M.A. in education, and then to buy a house in Stoneham. As a young teacher at SHS, she realized the need to devote herself entirely to her profession, and told herself, "Norelli, you are going to make your life here. It is time to be an adult and do it right." With this commitment she brought to Stoneham High a vigor and spirit unmatched as yet by any other educator in the building.

Miss Norelli's unique personality and style of teaching will forever resonate in the memories of her students. It is only in retrospect that one can fully appreciate a year spent with such an upbeat, inspiring woman. The stories she told were as full of life as she, ranging from tales about her beloved tomato plants and dog, to seemingly indifferent lectures on cheating, which made the right people squirm, but spared them the embarrassment of a direct confrontation. Miss Norelli's presence in the classroom and as an administrator advanced academics and enhanced daily life here at Stoneham High an immeasurable amount. Her quotes made us laugh, her teachings sparked our desire for knowledge, but most importantly, her influence has inspired us to be great. Even after her retirement, Miss Norelli's positive influence on the curriculum will be felt for years to come.

Faculty

On our first day of freshman year, we were introduced to the extraordinary faculty of Stoneham High School. Throughout our four years, they have been with us through our good and bad days and we have done the same for them. This mutuality has helped to change what may have begun as a teacher student relationship into a friend to friend relationship. They have also continued to teach us many lessons aside from those taught within the classroom. In their individual ways they have helped us recognize and correct our mistakes. With these lessons, we have grown into mature young adults prepared for what is awaiting us after graduation. The ability of the faculty to accomplish these tasks with each class that enters Stoneham High School proves that our faculty truly is "As Good as it Gets."

Fiddler On The Roof

Fiddlin' Around

They laughed! They cried! They shouted "Mazel Tov!" Each Drama Club performance of Fiddler on the Roof had the audience enthralled. From the opening strains of "Tradition" to the closing melody of "Anatevka," everyone in the audience was transported to the Russian village of Anatevka. They laughed along with Golde (Anne McDonnell) at the schemes of Yente the Matchmaker (Allison Lacy). They watched as Lazar Wolf (Matt Reopell) tried to marry Tevye's (Dan Braganca) oldest daughter, Tzeitel (Katie Lacy). They celebrated along with the family when Tzeitel married Motel (Josh Gondelman), her true love. When Tevye agonized over his daughter Hodel's (Amanda Hoffman) decision to marry Perchik (Joe Laiosa), the audience fretted along with him.

Then, when Tevye's daughter Chave (Joelle Kross) crushed his spirits by running off with Fyedka (Dan Pecci), who was not even Jewish, the audience shared in his pain. Finally, the audience lamented as the citizens of Anatevka were forcibly removed from their homes.

Although many of the characters in Fiddler are Jewish, the subject matter of tradition and love for one's family is universal. This is probably why the cast and crew came together so well for this show. The magnificent set was masterfully constructed under the direction of Technical Directors Jackie Carleton and Erin Molloy. Ms. Catalano and Ms. Zieff, aided by stage managers Jessica DiPietro and Pat Hume, directed the cast. This play was also special because it marked Ms. Zieff's last play with the Drama Club.

ROBIN HOOD

Boys (and Girls) In The Hood

For an actor, the greatest challenges often come when he is forced to take on a role with which the public is already familiar. The actor must put forth a portrayal of the character that both embraces tradition and defies it. The cast and crew of the Stoneham High School Drama Club wrestled with this problem while developing their production of Robin Hood.

In this quest to create a lively performance, the Drama Club received a great deal of help from the script itself. Larry Blamire's comedic adaptation of the story of Robin Hood, last performed ten years ago in Stoneham, puts a fresh spin on the plot. Ms. Danielle Catalano, the director of the drama club, and Rosie Kenney, the assistant director, also added their own flair to the production. Ms. Catalano gave both the actors and crew members tremendous liberty to experiment with accents, body language, and physical comedy. Also, she brought in physical education teacher Cynthia Carbone to teach the cast fencing. Mike Testa (Little John), Simon Jay (Friar Tuck), and Dan Pecci (Robin Hood) also were taught how to fight with quarterstaves.

Sam Hoyland (Alan-a-Dale), Allison Lacy (Ellen Deirwold), Courtney Boyd (Queen Eleanor), and Tina Gucciardi (Much) took especially firm control over their characters. Others, such as Allie Landers (Bishop), Mark Trant (King John), Josh Gondelman (Will Scarlet), and Andrea Aeschlimann (Prioress) managed to completely immerse themselves in their characters.

The crew, just as much as the cast, forged their own interpretation of the script. Constructed under the direction of Jackie Carleton, Mark Catalano, Anne Fardy, and Marybeth Sheehan began as a very traditional set. The crew later decided to make it more elaborate. Cat Dunham, the stage manager, made sure everything ran smoothly.

The individual interpretation did not rob the original plot and meaning from the script. Robin Hood (Dan Pecci) still stole from the rich and gave to the poor. His romance with Maid Marian (Amanda Hoffman) was as flirtatious as ever, and the Sheriff of Nottingham (Pat Hume) had all the evil cunning the audience could hope for. The production seamlessly interwove the classic story and the contemporary twists.

HOMECOMING

ONCE EVERY FOUR YEARS

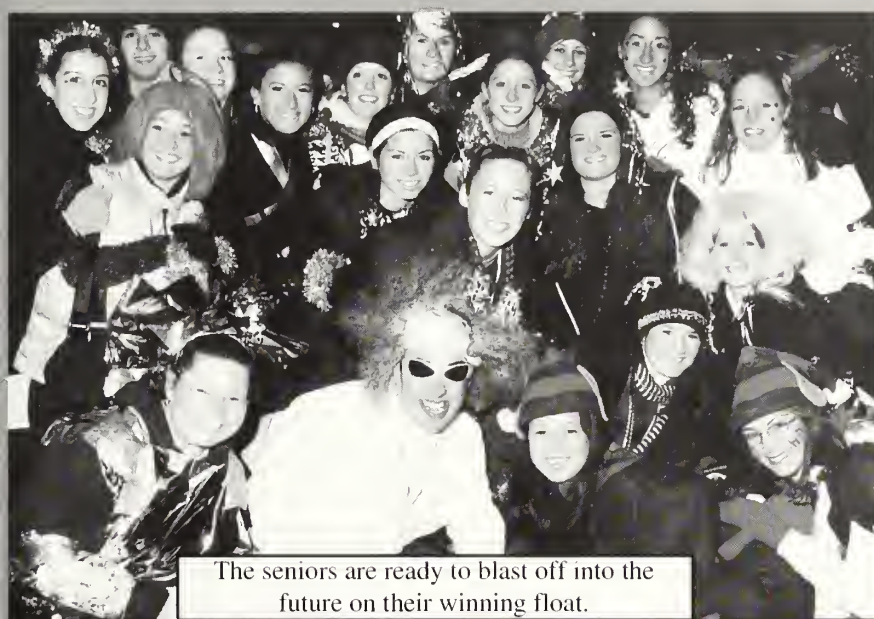

Every four years, Stoneham High School celebrates their Homecoming, an ongoing tradition. The celebration usually takes place on Thanksgiving Day, with most of the festivities occurring before or after the football game versus Reading. This year, however, the tradition was altered a bit, as Student Council members decided that the classic parade of floats and the naming of the King and Queen should be performed around a bonfire on the night previous to the game. This year's theme for the float parade was "Decades." The seniors, juniors, sophomores, and freshmen built their floats representing the Future, the '70's, '50's, and '60's respectively.

The nominees for King and Queen, as voted for by their classmates were freshmen Marc Picariello and Jen Grossi, sophomores Kevin McCarthy and Alison D'Orsi, juniors Mark Winsor and Jacqui Norton, and seniors Dan D'Ambrosio and Cori Jay. Two separate committees comprised of teachers, past kings and queens, and Stoneham community members voted on the winning float and chose the King and Queen. This year's winning float was the seniors' float, a mass of tin foil, lights and smoke. The King and Queen were sophomore Kevin McCarthy and senior Cori Jay.

Winter Concert

CONCERT HIGHLIGHTS

The 2002 Winter Concert displayed the dedication and talent in music that many of Stoneham High School's students possess. The night included a wide range of musical styles and displayed the many disciplines and skills that the students achieve through their performances with the Spartan Chorale, Jazz Ensemble, Chamber Chorus, and Spartan Band.

The first group to play was the Jazz Ensemble. Under the direction of Mr. Grammer, the group showed equal ability at mastering the rhythmic and fevered Latin jazz style, as well as the smoother and slower, cool jazz music. Each of their four songs Blues for Terri, On Green Dolphin Street, Footprints and The Chicken featured many impressive improvisational solos.

Following the Jazz Ensemble was the Chamber Chorus. This small group, led by Mr. Lague, performed three pieces, Sound the Trumpet, Ready for Love, and Away From the Roll of the Sea. The Indian song Ready for Love featured a solo by junior Alison Wilson-Pierce and a piano accompaniment by senior Grace Kim.

The Spartan Chorale sang next. They entertained the audience with their songs The Turtle Dove, My Fair Lady Choral Selection, Coventry Carol, Song for the Mira, Sun and Moon from "Miss Saigon", Swing the Mood, and the holiday selection Carol of the Bells. Senior Kristen Reynolds soloed during the My Fair Lady Choral Selection and senior Marlana Fecho was also featured during Coventry Carol.

Ending the concert was the Spartan Band's performance. Under the conduction of Mr. Grammer, the band played Proud Heritage, Bugler's Holiday and A Celebration of Carols. Seniors Eric Blackman and Samuel Hoyland and sophomore Rebecca Warren energized the crowd with their speedy trumpet trio during Bugler's Holiday. The final selection, A Celebration of Carols left all attending in a cheerful holiday spirit, marking a fitting end to a triumphant night of music.

Senior chorale members Katie O'Brien and Allie Delaney smile with the anticipation of the audience's arrival.

"Singing Swing the Mood and dancing."

Eric Blackman

"I enjoyed the opportunity to play a solo during Bugler's Holiday."

Allie Delaney

"Performing the song Sun and Moon."

N. H. S. Induction

Highlights of the Evening

The National Honor Society honors students in their junior or senior years by commending them for their elite performances in the fields of scholarship, leadership, character and service. Inductees are rewarded for their diligence and enthusiasm they put forth everyday.

The induction ceremony held on February 10, 2003, was an event of commendable respect. The NHS officers included President Carolyn Yeshulas, Vice President Mary Zinnel, Secretary Christine Sodergren, and Treasurer Emily Chen. Each of the officers gave a speech regarding the four qualities necessary to be inducted: scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Mr. Philip Riley, English teacher and athletic coach, was asked by the officers to be the Honorary Speaker of the ceremony and delivered a speech which emphasized the importance of hard work and perseverance. The Honorary Member of the induction was Mr. Steven Jackson, Stoneham High's Science Department supervisor. Mr. Jackson had a large effect on the education and lives of many of the inductees as their teacher and mentor and was very pleased to accept such an honor. Following the speeches, the inductees were formally inducted into the Society during the candlelight ceremony, as they pledged to "maintain and encourage high standards of scholarship, service, leadership, and character."

“What does being inducted to the N.H.S. mean to you?”

Christine Sodergren

“I feel it’s a great honor to be included in such a prestigious organization.”

Katie O’Brien

“It represents hard work.”

Carolyn Yeshulas

“It means that hard work has great rewards.”

Drama Fest

Highlights From the Play

Much Ado About Nothing

The Stoneham High School Drama Club enjoyed one of its most successful preliminary Dramafest rounds ever. In addition to moving on to semifinals, the club collected nine all-star company awards. Acting awards went to Danny Pecci's spirited portrayal of Benedick, Courtney Boyd's sassy take on Beatrice, Kris Ingersoll's impassioned Claudio, and Joelle Kross' sensitive Hero. On the technical side, Mark Catalano, Jaclyn Carleton, Marybeth Sheehan, and Anne Fardy earned an award for set design and execution. Laura Kelly, Jamie Doherty, and Corinna Jay received one for excellence in costuming. Tina Gucciardi, unable to attend the festival, and was not eligible for the award despite her dedication to costuming. For their mask construction and design, Beth Mata and Mary Bridges earned an award. Hair and make-up supervisors Allison Lacy and Farrell Boghos were also named all-stars. Finally, Cat Dunham won an award for excellence as a stage manager. Other notable performances came from Sam Hoyland and Josh Gondelman (given an all-star award at semifinals for ensemble acting) as the night watchmen, Pat Hume as an evil mastermind, and Blake Coleman as his lackey. Mark Trant and Andrea Aeschlimann also gave stirring performances. Although the play did not advance past the semifinal round, the club put on a superb performance.

The senior participants in Much Ado About Nothing.

Blake and Pat. Evil and Eviler.

Andrea and Courtney, the unhappy couple.

Kris has a strong hearthead... literally.

Aghast and the Furious.

What is your most indelible memory from the festival?

Josh Gondelman

"Fest this year carried many memorable experiences, but I think that shaving my head in the men's room at Sharon High School is a memory that will stay with me for quite a while."

Joelle Kross

"I really like how there was such an atmosphere of friendliness and all the schools really 'clicked.' Sharon was the first school to stand and cheer for us when we moved on even though they didn't advance."

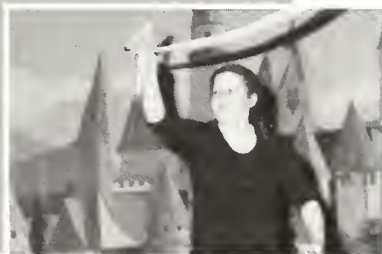

Mark Trant

"Definitely the tuxedos. The tuxes and the ninja face."

Carnival Ball

Lost in Fairyland

Fairy Tales

Few Carnival Balls in recent memory combined tremendously talented performers, technical excellence, and snappy MC and cast dialogue the way Carnival Ball 2003 did. King Brian Vatcher and Queen Ashley Stockbridge along with their Royal Court watched as a fairy tale unfolded around them. Master and Mistresses of Ceremony, Josh Gondelman, Emily Chen and Carolyn Yeshulas, spent the evening trapped in a Carnival Ball "Fairy Land." The fairy tale atmosphere was heightened by whimsical performances including Courtney Boyd's rendition of "Why They Call It Falling" accompanied by Grace Kim, Amanda Paonessa's energetic dance to Michael Jackson's "Smooth Criminal," and superb performances by the Spartan Chorale, Chamber Chorus, Spartan Band, and Jazz Ensemble. The comedy skits were solid with highlights being the Drama Club's "Modern Fairy Tales" and the faculty's reality television based fairy tale. The team of Mark Catalano, Clare Connolly, and Andy Hume handled the lighting which was spectacular, and Clare also served as Assistant Director. The back stage crew of Kevin Quigley, Steve Salerno, Chris Moran, Bobby Sargent, and Domenic Previte, kept things running smoothly. As always, Mr. James Carino, deserves much credit for masterminding the planning and execution of Carnival Ball. On a sad note, this was Mr. Romano's last Carnival Ball after 33 years of active participation.

Chris Sacco plays Hawwy, err, Harry, pewfectly.

Jess Chiachio does the NaNaNa.

Mr. Russo, the next bachelor? Ms. Chapman thinks not!

What was your favorite part of Carnival Ball?

Christina McCarthy

"My favorite part of Carnival Ball was having the opportunity to participate in a long held tradition with my closest friends and having an excuse for wearing a clown wig!"

Mark Catalano

"I liked working behind the scenes as the lighting designer and being part of the Carnival Ball tradition."

Rosie Kenney

"My favorite part of this year's Carnival Ball was getting up onstage in front of the entire school and portraying a leprechaun. It was priceless!"

FIELD HOCKEY

"SLAPSHOT"

The final record of the season, 4 wins and 14 losses, did not reflect the hard work and dedication of the team. Throughout the season the team was burdened with several injuries, but we did not let such obstacles keep us from working even harder to win. Every game, our cheer of motivation erupted on the field:

"Here we go, let's go, let's get fired up!"

This season really tested our strength and capabilities in all aspects. Everyone's hard effort shined during practice and during games. Our team spirit and love for the game helped keep the team morale high through victory and defeat. We developed strong bonds that could not and will not ever be broken, with lasting memories both on and off the field.

We wish the best for the team in the upcoming seasons.

Mary's been working on her squats.

GOLF

"HAPPY GILMORE"

This year's golf season was not only memorable, but successful as well. We qualified for the State Tournament for another consecutive year and boasted three All-Stars: Joe Corindia, Mike Powers, and Joe Leo. Along with these accomplishments we had a lot of fun on and off the course. I want to thank all the guys on the team for making my final SHS golf season an awesome one.

VOLLEYBALL

"CASTAWAY"

The principles of triumph affirm that success cannot be measured in the publicized achievements of a team, but by the degree of happiness obtained by the individual participants. During our senior volleyball season, our team was rewarded with both of these forms of victory. Although a lot of work was required to become Middlesex League champions, our underlying inspiration was launched by how well we got along and how much FUN we had. From dreidels to blue hair to costume parties to battering the football team with water balloons to accessorizing the soccer boys' cars with certain "interesting" items to simply peppering and laughing, in the end we shocked 'em all.

Reflection over the last year transpires with an enormous wave of positive energy. We feel privileged to have worked with a group of such genuinely warm-hearted girls. We LOVE you! Don't forget us seniors Lawrenzo, Spoons, Step-On-Me, All-The Way-Jay, Into-The-Netta, and DeeRam! Good luck to next year's team.

GIRLS' CROSS COUNTRY

"WITHOUT LIMITS"

Cross-Country is a sport demanding a heightened level of focus, commitment, and perseverance. For ourselves, the runners, a team was formed from a tightly-knit group of fun-loving individuals who give competition a good name. Our distinct personalities came together to transform thirteen strangers into best friends and, more importantly, cohesive teammates. The group this year had great talent, but we would never have achieved anything without the hard work and dedication that every member put forth along with the unwavering guidance and support provided by Coach Norton. Every memory of this season is wonderful, yet bittersweet; the Cross-Country rock, zero degree races, "Norley Rileton" and our Halloween Eighties Prom will forever be a part of our lives. We know that the younger members of the team will give the same strong effort next year. With each success, remember that Emily, Alissa and Carolyn will be rooting for you every step of the way.

BOYS' CROSS COUNTRY

"PREFONTAINE"

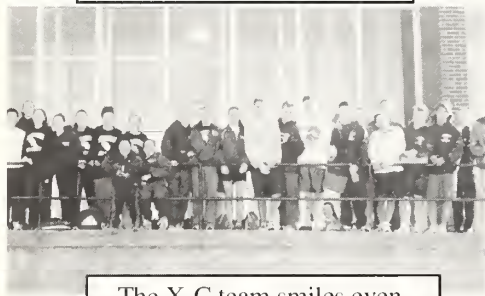

You would run too if you had Mr. Riley for a coach. Second year coach, Mr. Riley, led the Spartan Harriers to a 8-1 record. On the state level, we started out strong with a 5th place finish at Bay State Invitational. At the Catholic Memorial Invitational the Spartans finished in 6th. After a 5th place finish at Eastern Massachusetts Championship Race, we were qualified for the Massachusetts All-State Meet for the first time in three years, where we would place 13th in Division II. Stoneham was led by seniors James Keefe, James Kelly, Tim Judge, Brendan Lowell, Dan Mahoney, Ray Scarpone, and Brian Vatcher. Juniors who were a great asset to the team this year were Alex Devlin and Erik Nardone. Nardone's early season leg injury would prevent him from running for the majority of the season. Sophomores Jon Cheng, Randy Fixman, Brendan Mahoney, Chris Sampson, and Billy Scullin and freshman Matt Wantman earned valuable points this season. Brendan Lowell and first year star, Brian Vatcher, received Middlesex League All-Star. To say that this year was fun and successful would be an understatement. It was a season filled with great times and better people.

FALL CHEERLEADING

"SUGAR & SPICE"

This year was a success for the fall cheerleading squad of 2002. This was our first season in which we competed at the Middlesex Cheerleading Competition. With many contributions from the individual team members, we designed a fun and unique routine. We did not place, but every lift worked, and we felt that we had done a great job. We were overjoyed when it was over to know that we made a noteworthy impression for ourselves and for future Stoneham cheering teams. Over the years we have had so much fun being a part of the team. Cheering for the football team was always a pleasure. Homecoming was exciting and it was awesome to enjoy it during our senior year. Cheering for the soccer team was also great and we're happy we were able to experience their trip to the tournament, their winning it all and becoming State Champs. Overall, our last season cheering was enjoyable and we will miss everyone next year.

To introduce the team: the three captains, Alicia Maloney, Katie O'Brien, and Erica Fiorentino. The other seniors on the squad: Ashley Stockbridge, Shannon Bilderback, Rob Millwee, Krystal Butler, and Nicole Palermo. Juniors: Jill Cunningham, Christina Santoro, and Jaelyn Vigorito.

Captains Erica Fiorentino, Alicia Maloney, and Katie O'Brien with Coach DiLisio

Sophomores: Amanda Danilchuk, Ashley Sullivan, Kim Maligneri, and Rebecca Burke. Freshmen: Jen Grossi, Kelly Brown, Meghan Daly, and Stephanie Bilderback.

If we had the chance to do it all over again, we would. But, we would not change a thing because the memories and fun times are endless. Thanks everyone and good luck to future squads.

BOYS' SOCCER

"THE BIG GREEN"

At the beginning of the season we felt that we could have a successful year. Although we had lost many players to graduation, we were confident with one another. During the off-season, everyone worked hard to improve their game by playing indoor soccer, spring soccer, and summer soccer. In the spring we entered a tournament and were co-champions (how ironic!). We also trained very hard at captains' practices and a pre-season camp. The most important aspect of our off-season work was not the training and skills gained, but the team unity and friendships we were building. The friendships we made this season will last forever and we will never forget each other.

Being a young team without much varsity soccer experience, we didn't know what to expect at the beginning of the season. In our first two games we didn't do all that well and tied both. In those games against Melrose and Lexington, we felt we should have come away with victories. After two solid wins against Woburn and Wakefield, it felt like we were ready to roll. In our game against Winchester, we were beaten both physically and mentally and it made us get down on ourselves. After a meeting with just the players, we said that we would not let that happen ever again. That day we were back at practice working even harder with more determination to reach our goal -- to win the Middlesex League Title. In our much anticipated rematch against league leading Winchester we tied, tying us with them for the lead. We needed help from another team when Belmont tied Winchester to put us ahead for good. We finished up our season with a win against Reading, clinching the Middlesex League Championship. On our way home from the game we were escorted down Main Street by a fire engine. Knowing that the community cared and was supporting us meant a lot to us. It was a great feeling to be our school's first ever soccer League champions, but we knew our jobs were not done. We used all our momentum and success to help us in the tournament. In the Division 3 State Tournament we were selected as the 2nd seed and received home field advantage for the first two games. So far we were undefeated at home. Our first game was against a tough Swampscott team who we easily defeated 6 - 1. In the second round we drew an Austin Prep team that was on a long win streak. After going up 2 - 0 on two quick goals by Jason Ring, the game evened out and was tied at 3 - 3. Billy Gardner then drew a penalty kick that allowed us to score and win 4 - 3. Our North Semifinal game was against a very good Bedford team. After falling behind 1 - 0, Mike DeSantis scored two goals leading us to a dramatic come-from-behind victory. The North Finals were against a familiar opponent in Wayland, who knocked us out of the tournament the previous year. In the shootout that followed two overtimes, Danny D'Ambrosio made two huge saves and Chris Moran scored the game-winning goal to advance us to the State Championship. In the Semifinal game against Medway, Chris Moran scored an early goal to give us a lead that held up the entire game due to great defending by Steve Salerno, Adam Kennedy, J.R. Russell, Bobby Sargent, and Brian DeVirgilio. The State Finals against Sutton followed. Jeff Kirkland and Chris Moran set up a goal by Mike DeSantis while help from midfielders Steve Mahoney and Mark DeSantis kept pressure on Sutton. The game ended in a tie after two scoreless overtimes. Ending in a tie was disappointing to all of us, but we are still State Champions. Throughout the entire season we rose to the task and did what we needed to do. We really played hard and we were cool, calm, and collected under pressure. We were a bunch of PRESSURE PLAYERS!

GIRLS' SOCCER

"LADYBUGS"

6-6-6...Our record says it all! Our season was awesome and we always played with heart. We did what we had to do, and enjoyed every minute of it! Remember all the good times we've shared both on and off the field: trips to the beach, summer league, pasta parties, toilet papering, practices, and obviously all our inside jokes! We're still the only ones who appreciate both Roses and Lotus Blossoms and who find it hysterical to gossip about our Intense and L.O.ving F.anS! As a group we were inseparable and we'll forever be known as the team that shut the man down! We told both him and the "hat" to MOVE! The past few months have been unforgettable and we love you guys.... Be Proud!

FOOTBALL

"VARSITY BLUES"

Coming into the season, we had high hopes for our 2002 football season. We came out strong in the league winning our first two games. The rest of the season was not a success in the win column but the effort was definitely there. Our season overall did not provide us with the wins we wanted but it did bring us unforgettable memories and lifelong friendships.

We will never forget the way BA used to light up innocent quarterbacks or the way Josh would spin for 2 or 3 extra yards on every play. We will never forget the way Greavesy ran when he was at his best nor the way Silva played in those memorable 5 plays. Markie's overtime field goal will be something we will always remember along with Zinchuk's jokes, comments, injuries, and his "All-Star" caliber play. Harry will always be our smallest, healthiest, but still one of our best linemen. How could we forget Casey knocking wideouts out and screaming in their face as they lay on the ground. We will always wonder how Demetri broke up all those wedges on kickoff without ever being phased by it. We will always remember Sabbagh for a number of reasons but we're sure in 60 years, we will still be hearing the name "SABBAGH!" as we sit in our nursing homes.

Captains David Greaves and Marc Silva with Coach Powers

Now as we take our next big step in life, let us not forget our days of football. We have produced friendships and memories that will last a lifetime. We have a bond between us as a football team, which cannot be broken. We will never forget each other, nor the friendships we made with the underclassmen. We will always be a part of Spartan football for we are the building blocks of a successful Stoneham program. Good luck to next year's team and to football teams for years to come. Thanks for the memories.

SWIMMING

"THE LITTLE MERMAID"

The SHS/MHS Cooperative Swim Team had an unforgettable second season together. This year we swam to a much more competitive record, ending the season with 5 wins and 5 losses, and ranking 5th in the league. One of the most memorable meets this past season was the meet against Burlington. Coming down to the very last relay, we were neck in neck with Burlington valiantly defeating them by seconds. After tallying up the total points, SHS/MHS erupted with excitement as we beat our first competitive Middlesex League team by one point.

This meet proved to be a foreshadowing of what we would continue to do throughout the rest of the season. Practices became harder, times dropped and personal records were broken. Contributing to our successful season and the aura of the team was veteran senior Leanna Farnum and newcomer Christina McCarthy. Leanna brought much to the team with her hardworking attitude and much needed points in meets to help us reach that win. Christina always swam with 110% effort and displayed an unmatched level of team spirit.

Not only did we swim hard but played hard. The memories we "swimmies" had this season will never be forgotten. Good luck seniors, we'll miss you! Remember to always "just add water!"

BOYS TRACK

"COOL RUNNINGS"

The 2002-03 Winter Track season proved to be a successful one for us. We finished off the season with a respectable record of 7-2 in the highly competitive Middlesex League. Our team was led by Captains Jon Garcia, Marc Silva, Dave Greaves, and Brian Vatcher and held a large group of talented seniors. The sprinters and jumpers were led by Jon Garcia and Corey Irons in the high jump and hurdles, and Joe Corindia in the dash. Chris Doody and Matt Feduska contributed to the 300 and the 600 meter runs, respectively. The distance crew was headed by Brendan Lowell and Kevin Burke in the 2-mile, Tim Judge in the 1-mile, Brian Vatcher and James Keefe in the 1000 meter run, and James Kelly in the 600 meter race. The shotputters had five solid seniors this year; Dave Greaves, Marc Silva, Jim Zinchuk, Brendan O'Brien, and Frank Carino led the squad. Some highlights include Jon Garcia's 2nd place victory in the 55 meter hurdles in the MIAA All-State Meet, and breaking his own hurdle record several times also. In addition, the 4x400 meter relay team of Kelly, Vatcher, Garcia, and Junior Chris Botelho placed second in the Class C state meet and later went on to break the school record in the same event. Finally, the seniors would like to thank Coaches Powers, Riley, DiLisio, LeMoine, and Melkonian for all their hardwork, support, and inspiration. It was they who taught us to strive for improvement, to create attainable goals, and to never accept any less than the best from ourselves. We would also like to wish the best of luck to the Spartan underclassmen in their future seasons.

GIRLS TRACK

"RUN, LOLA, RUN"

For a team of only 19 members, the SHS girls indoor track team impressively pulled through with a record of 3 wins and 6 losses. We competed in one of the most competitive leagues in the state with a team that was numerically one-fourth the size of most. As Coach Norton would often say, "Each meet was nip and tuck." In competition against both Wakefield and Woburn the difference in scoring was ten points or less. Each team member often competed in two or more events to fill a void whenever possible. Opposing teams found themselves intimidated by our small team's spirit, which was demonstrated by our colorful t-shirts, single file warm ups, Avril Lavigne "concerts," and boisterous cheering. Everyone made significant improvements throughout the season because, "when we go, we go hard." No matter how many setbacks we endured, whether it be injury, illness, or getting lost on route to the Woburn track, our enthusiasm and determination continued to dominate the track. Our small size was our best quality, as we bonded through team events and pasta parties. The spirit in our small team will surely always "survive.... hey, hey!"

GYMNASTICS

"HEAD OVER HEELS"

Reflecting on our last season with the SHS gymnastics team, one word comes to mind: FUN! Although our record may indicate a losing season, we won. Our team had so much spirit and unity that when the season ended, it seemed it had just begun. The season got off to a rocky start. Our coach for as long as we can remember retired, so we needed to become acquainted with a new coach. Danielle Boyd did all she could to become part of the team right away. During the first weeks of the season, she got to know us and we got to know her. In the end, we grew to love and respect her. Assisting Coach Boyd was Annemarie McNeil. Coach McNeil, who we have loved and admired for the last four years, helped ease the pressure we felt because of the change in head coach. We love our team and all the unique individuals who compose it. We will miss them greatly. Also, we would like to thank our fellow teammates and coaches for making our final season the best ever. We love you all and will remember each and every one of you.

BOYS BASKETBALL

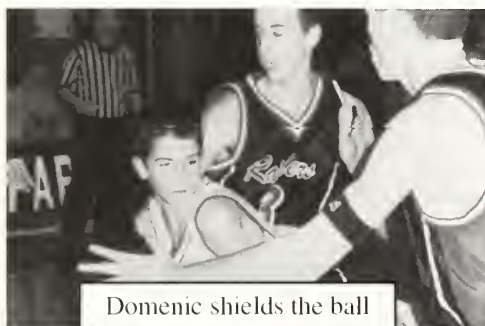

"HOOP DREAMS"

This year's season did not prove to be as promising as the team had hoped. But that is not to say that our season was a bad one. Although our 4-16 record doesn't show much, we had many close games that we could have won. We lost in overtime to Cathedral, by 2 points against Burlington, by 5 points to Reading, and only 1 point against third place Winchester. If we had won a couple of those games our season could have changed drastically.

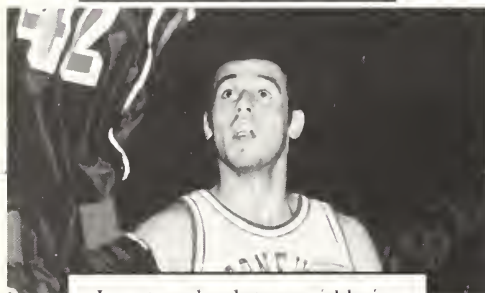

Our team was a senior heavy team. For the second half of the year our whole starting lineup was seniors. At center was Captain Danny Doherty. Doherty was our most consistent offensive player and a great shot blocker. In every game you could expect Danny to have at least 10 points and 2 blocks. At the power forward position was Joe Sabbagh, our team's lone All-Star. Joe was always there on the defensive end, covering the opposing team's big man and always stepping in to take a charge. On the offensive end Joe had a good jump shot, and we could count on him having around 7 rebounds. Casey O'Hearn was the team's small forward. Casey was a good 3-point shooter and always covered the team's best player. In one game against Winchester, Casey held one of the top three players in the league to only 4 points. O'Hearn was always flying around the court making things happen on defense. At point guard was Captain Jason Ring. As the point guard, Ring directed the offense and spread the ball around. At shooting guard was Jeff Kirkland. Kirkland was the team's most explosive offensive player. Kirkland had games of 30, and at least three with 20 or more. Off the bench were seniors Dave Harrington, Adam Kennedy, and Ryan McCormack. Harrington and Kennedy provided the team with hard work on defense, and timely baskets on the offensive end. McCormack was an offensive weapon, who could shoot from anywhere on the floor.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

"LOVE AND BASKETBALL"

"We're good at basketball..." Our record didn't necessarily show it, but we worked hard. This was a great season with so many memorable quotes: "Train's on the rebound!", "Bardah's hot!", "What time does the zoo close?", "You're an animal!", "Cerebral (with a c)" and, obviously, "Roll out!"

Our freestylin' is nasty and our crazy sleepovers will definitely continue post-season! Never forget dressing up, sledding at Bear Hill, and "Officer McGillicuddy." Fun times! We love you girls! Make us proud next year!

WINTER CHEERLEADING

"BRING IT ON"

Throughout the 2002-2003 season, we have pushed ourselves to the limit and proved that we could come together as a team. Despite the large amount of new girls on the team, we have become a great squad. With the help from our JAG Coach Alissa, Rob, and Jen (our 21st teammate!) we were able to become the great team that we are. We could have never accomplished what we have done without them. Our incredible Coach Lisa Walsh always pushed us and motivated us to be the best that we could be. We were able to host the Middlesex League Cheering Competition in Stoneham this year and we were excited about that. Over the years, we have had so many great memories and we have made long lasting friendships. The underclassmen have stepped up and have shown great leadership qualities. Although it will be hard to leave them behind next year, they will be prepared to carry the team along to another year of competition. We have had fun and an incredible season. Never forget to "FIRE IT UP," girls! Good luck and we love you!

BOYS HOCKEY

"THE MIGHTY DUCKS"

6-12-1. Really we should have finished 7-12-1 and even that record can be deceiving. Our team this year could have been in the post season but we suffered some tough, disappointing losses to Wakefield, Burlington and Melrose. We didn't lose to those teams because they were better than us or because we didn't work hard, but because the puck just didn't bounce our way.

We have a bunch of great players and we know that the six seniors will miss the team very much. We had some great times this season. We went out to Prince, had pasta parties and hung out as a team. The seniors were the heart and soul of the team. Ross O'Meara was a force on offense along with C.J. Mossali and league all-star Tommy Sodergren. Jason Fields and Captain Daniel D'Ambrosio, also a league all-star, held teams to minimal goals throughout the season. Finally, most importantly, was Captain Mike Powers. He was a force both defensively and offensively. The team would not have won the six games they did without the senior leadership.

Next year's team looks promising and we wish them luck.

GIRLS HOCKEY

"THE MIGHTY DUCKS II"

This season was very successful for the Girls Ice Hockey team. We have progressed very quickly for a second year team. We conquered many challenges of being a new sport. Our coach Mr. Hardy has been an excellent coach. He has dedicated a lot of time to the team. He really has started to prepare the team to transition from club status to a J.V. team. Mr. Sheedy also dedicated a lot of his time to helping the girls at practice. We thank them very much for their help. Mr. Lahiff scheduled more games for us this year and that improved our record. We worked very hard as a team, and we had so much fun. We held our own against established teams. Jessie Boone, one of the few seniors on the team, was a beginner, but she always put in a superb effort and added to our team spirit. Stephanie DeHetre had great skating skills and was a valued defense player. The team will miss these girls. The program is continuing to grow and there seems to be more fun and more successful seasons for the girls hockey team ahead.

Captains Lauren D'Ambrosio and Colleen Strunk with Coach Hardy

The team strategizes over a play.

Lauren gets ready to defend.

"Sophomore year, our Biology class went on the annual 'Marsh Field Trip' with Ms. Ianelli. The day of the field trip was a beautiful, warm, and sunny day, the kind of day that makes you realize summer was just around the corner. When the bus pulled up to the site, we were all excited to begin the trip. We started on a dry, flat area of land before we were quickly directed toward an area of water, where we would be doing most of our studies. Our trip to the water would not be an easy one, however, as we would have to overcome unstable land with various areas of deep water. While we were walking Ms. Ianelli began warning us, making sure we carefully watched each step. In her final warning she told us to beware of any holes. Before she could even finish her sentence though, she stepped into a hole and fell! We all felt bad and we wanted to help her, but we couldn't stop laughing."

"I'll never forget after September 11, 2001, the whole school got together for a candle lighting ceremony. Freshmen through seniors, along with many of our parents and other people from the town came to this event. We gathered at the Town Common where we prayed for the victims of the tragedy, the survivors, and even people we knew. We also talked and lit candles. It was great to see so many people who might not have even talked before getting along so well. Afterwards, we all walked over to the fire station and said thank you to all the firefighters for all the work they do. As we did this some of the firefighters had tears in their eyes, it seemed strange that something so little as a "thank you" could make a person feel so good. To my surprise, the firefighters kept the candles lit for a few of the following nights as well. This memory is etched in my mind, even though it came from something tragic, I will always remember that a little kindness can go a long way."

"Many aspects of living in Stoneham are wonderful. The absolute lack of legal evening social activities available to high school students, however, is continuously frustrating. This is why, in a state of sheer exasperation, some of my friends and I headed into Boston one fateful night early in our senior year in search of some good clean fun. Perhaps it was because we had just watched "Newsies" in history class and were inspired by Bill Pullman's superbness, or maybe because none of us had ever truly exercised our vocal abilities (or lack thereof) in public, but for whatever reason, we set out to perform an improvisational musical oh-so-creatively entitled, "The Streets of Boston!" To make a long story short; we sang; we danced; and we attracted more than a few (let's say 50, for discussion's sake) unbelieving stares. No plot, theme, characters, or other traditional theatrical necessities ever solidified amid the chorus of eight severely out-of-tune voices singing eight different songs, so I don't believe any Tony Awards are even remotely within our grasps. We are considering a second attempt, to be called, "The Streets of Stoneham." Despite the title, it's location is debatable; we're still determining whether this dull suburb could handle the shock of such an exciting evening activity."

"I became a Peer Leader this past year and I feel like I have really accomplished something. I didn't understand exactly what the group was supposed to do, but I knew that helping others was a big part of the program. At the start of this school year, we were given the task of putting on an assembly in remembrance of September 11th: One Year Later. The Peer Leaders worked very hard for a few days collecting music with sound clips from the radio and T.V. from that day, putting together a video of the news clips, and selecting appropriate poems to read at the assembly. Allison Lacy and I read the poems and Dan Pecci played a song that he composed for 9/11 on the piano. All four grades of the high school came into the auditorium on Sept. 11, 2002 as the music played. The students watched the video and listened to our presentations. There was not one sound in the auditorium as they took in all of the information. As we returned to our classrooms, many different people, some I didn't even know, approached me and some of the other Peer Leaders and thanked us for putting on the assembly. They said it was a way for them to deal with the events. It made me feel so good that I could help others get through a really tough situation. My job as a Peer Leader has been partially fulfilled because I know I have already helped others."

ADAM KENNEDY

"My fondest SHS memory is my senior soccer season. Pre-season expectations from critics were not high, but as a team we knew we could have a very successful season. Our loss to Winchester in the 6th game was a real turning point in the season, and we finished the season with an overall record of 13-1-4. The influence of the dedicated student body fans played a vital role in our 8-0-1 home record. For the first time in the 34 year history of boys soccer at SHS, we captured the Middlesex League Title. And that was just the beginning..."

In the first round of the state tournament, we convincingly defeated Swampscott, 6-1, at home, in front of an enthusiastic crowd. In the second round, we beat Austin Prep. Our success continued in the third round when we came back from a one-goal second half deficit to earn a victory against Bedford. In the Division II North Final, Stoneham took revenge by eliminating Wayland, who had ended SHS's tournament run the previous year, in a thrilling penalty kick shootout. For the first time in SHS history, Stoneham advanced to the state semi-final game, where Stoneham battled Medway in the pouring rain at B.U. and left victorious. In the Division II state final, also played at B.U., Stoneham found an equal opponent in Sutton. The game ended 1-1 after regulation time expired and no team could score after two grueling overtime periods. Both teams were named co-champions.

Although Stoneham was saddened with the status of co-champions, withing weeks we began to realize the significance of our accomplishments. The weeks following were exciting and included our participation in the homecoming parade, a visit to the Selectmen's meeting, a standing ovation at the Fall Sports Banquet and a honorary visit to the State House."

IF YOU CAN DREAM IT, YOU CAN DO IT

September 1985

Susan,

We are so proud of the person you have become, full of laughter, compassion, direction, and dedication. May all your dreams become reality throughout your life.

"There's no thrill in easy sailing,
When the sky is clear and blue,
There's no joy in merely doing,
Things which anyone can do.
But there is some satisfaction that is mighty sweet to take,
When you've reached a destination that you thought you couldn't make."
